Application For Vacant Council Position

Thank you for your interest in as a Roy City Council Member. We appreciate our residents who take time out of their busy schedules and help us to make Roy a community driven city who works hard to keep our hometown values.

Roy City Council represents the needs and interests of the citizens of Roy. The five-member Council establishes policy for the city, adopts the annual budget, and represents Roy's interest on regional boards and commissions.

Council meetings are held at 7:00pm on the second Monday of each month in the Council Chambers at 216 McNaught St S. Roy, WA 98580. Community members are encouraged to attend all meetings and each agenda dedicates time at the beginning for public comments, questions, or concerns. Council members also have Study and work sessions prior to council meetings to study and discuss topics of interest or concern.

If you have questions about the application process or if you need accommodation in the application process, please contact City Hall at 253-843-1113.
